

Final Android Project

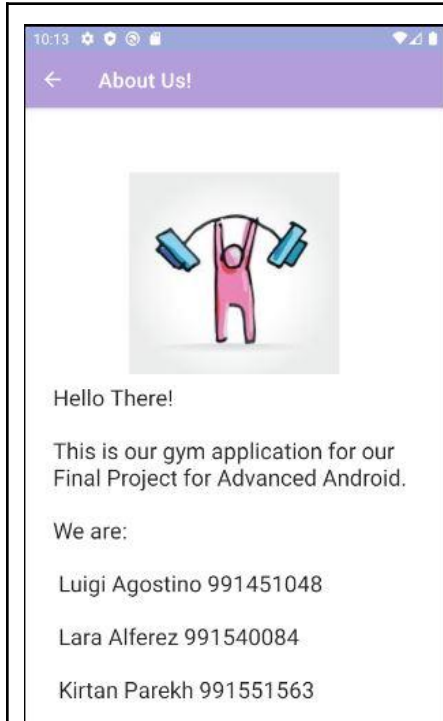

GymLogger

GymLogger App

Title Page = Has Options menu successfully navigating to following fragments	Exercise Page = Showing two exercises that move to the next fragment including a back button to move to the previous stack.	Swimming Fragment with following buttons. There are 4 buttons along with the options menu.

Final Android Project

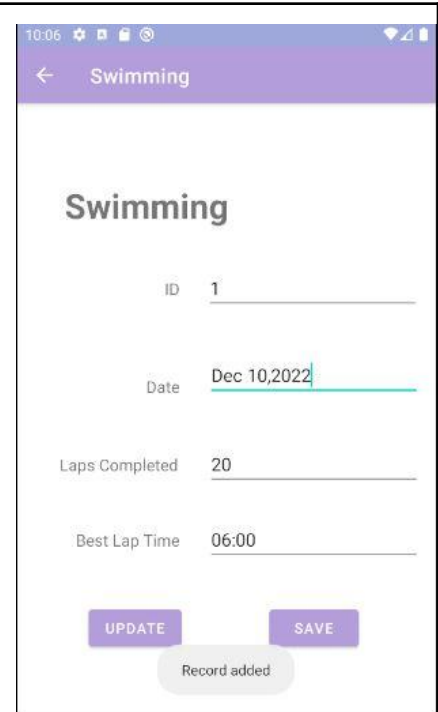

GymLogger

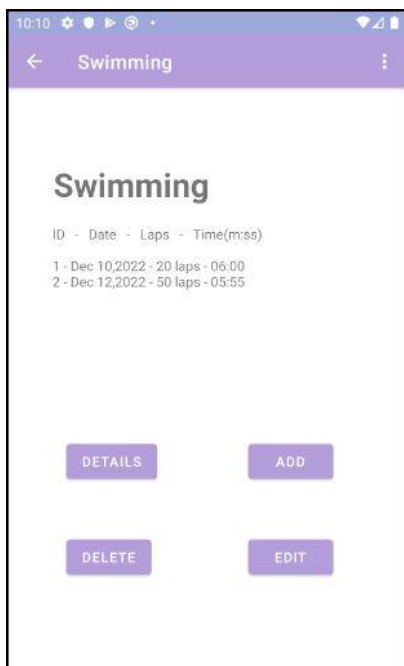

About Us Fragment showing a few details of the students who worked on the project

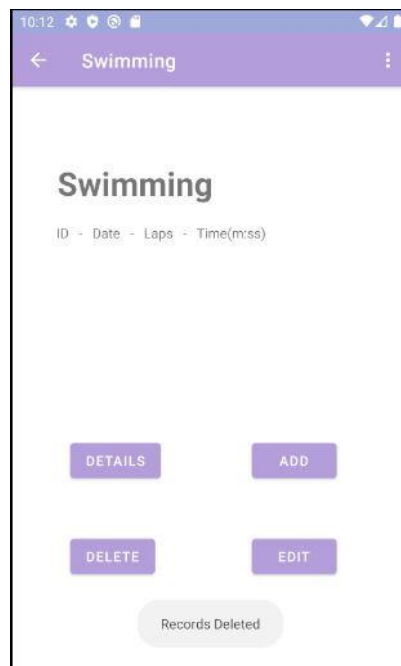

Add button navigates to form that allows user to enter in details

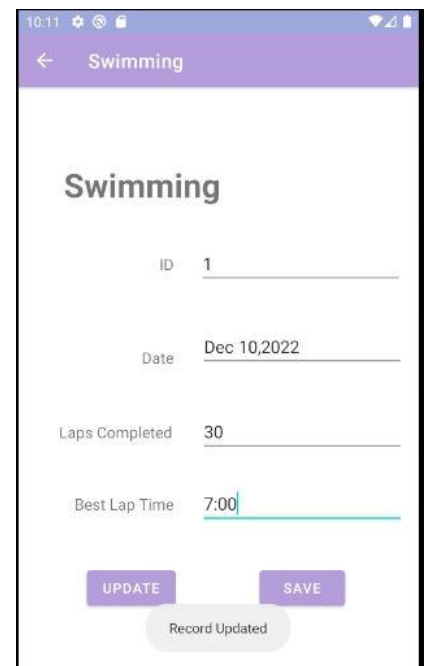

Example Add with toast message success

Details button populates exercises added to database

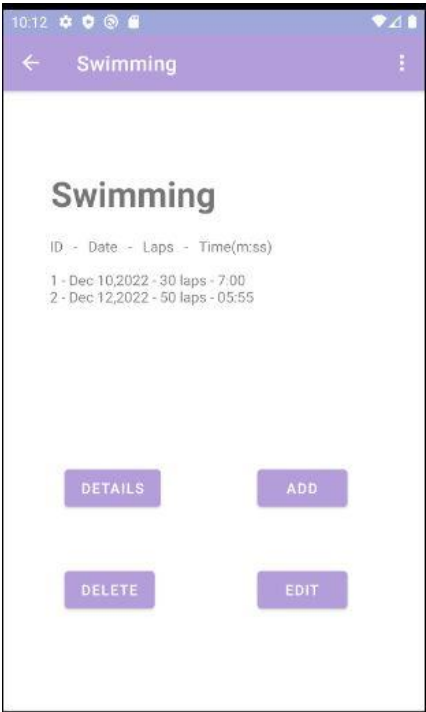

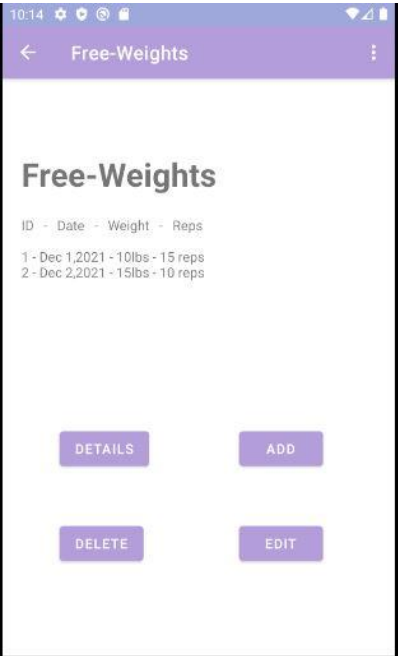

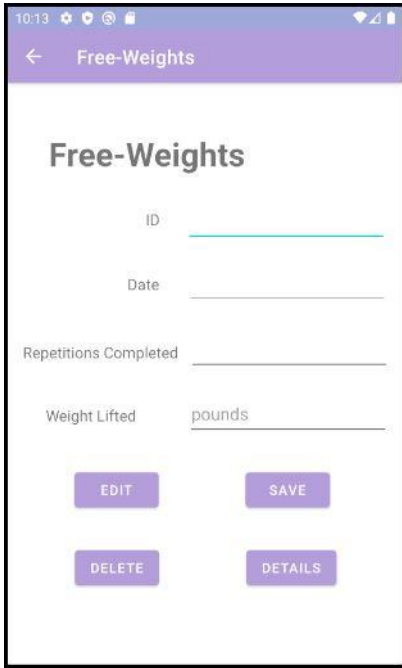

Delete button clears database with toast message success

Update button with success toast message. Specify ID number to select which

Final Android Project

GymLogger

		record to update
 Success of update. Refer to ID 1 of previous screenshots to compare.	 Weights Fragment show similar details and functionalities	 Weights form shows appropriate fields according to exercise

Note:

Buttons in screenshots have been changed but functionality of application remains intact and successful. Refer to video for updated button views.